Rev. Jay Alfaro
jam ministries

JAM Ministries is an evangelistic ministry, birthed through prayer by founder Rev. Jay Alfaro, that carries the prevailing message of salvation, healing, and revival from coast to coast. Rev. Alfaro was raised in Houston, TX and accepted the Lord after graduation high school at his home church El Tabernaculo A/G church. Rev. Alfaro began his studies at Latin American Bible Institute, located in San Antonio, Texas, where he received his diploma in Pastoral Ministries (Graduated Salutatorian). Upon graduation he continued his education at Southwestern Assemblies of God University in Waxahachie, Texas, where he earned his Bachelor of Science in Pastoral Ministries and later his Master of Science in Practical theology. For the past ten years, Rev. Alfaro has not only served as a full-time Evangelist, but has also taken part in Pastoral Ministries. For two years he served as Associate Pastor and Evangelist in Staten Island, New York. As an evangelist, he traveled internationally, boldly proclaiming the gospel in churches, street outreaches, leadership conferences, and camp meetings. After a move back to Texas, Rev. Alfaro served a term of three years as Senior Pastor of Primera Asamblea de Dios in Waxahachie, Texas.

Rev. Jay Alfaro is a Licensed Minister with the Assemblies of God. He is President of the "No More Dead Lions" Men's Fellowship and Men's Conference. Founder and President of JAM Ministries in Rhome, TX. Rev. Jay & Melissa host their Annual Leadership and Partners Banquet, JAM Ministries Princess Conference, & "No More Dead Lions" Men's Conference. From these platforms Rev. Jay Alfaro reaches out to people of every ethnic background and is involved in leadership and mentorship of pastors, ministers, and business leaders throughout the country.
